Guidelines for Taking Post JAMB Examination

Every student desires for his/her Post-JAMB examination to be the first and the last.

If you have ever written Post-JAMB more than once, you will be tempted to believe that those who got it right the first time were lucky. But luck has little to do with passing your Post-JAMB.

There are instructions given to you before taking the exam-do not make noise, tick or shade the right answer, stop at the right time, etc. These are to ensure the Examination goes smoothly, but you can follow the guidelines listed below to increase your chances of success in your Post-JAMB exam

Post-JAMB Exam Guidelines

1. Arrive early to your Post-JAMB exam centre. Make sure you locate your exam center before the before the day of the exam so you don't spend time looking for the center on the morning of then exam.
2. Take along only those things that are necessary. If you know you don't need your phone for the exam, don't go along with it. There have been cases of mobile phones being seized or stolen from the owners at the exam venue.
3. Take extra stationery along, Calculator etc.
4. Dress comfortably and smart.
5. Do not make any noise wh en in the exam center. If you constitute yourself as a Nuisance, you may incur the wrath of your invigilator, and this would not be good For you as it can lead to your result being seized.
6. Do not waste too much time on a particular question, you can skip it and later come back to it after you've answered the recognizable ones.

ENGLISH PASSAGE

Read the following passage and answer question

'You all know how friendly we are with Okperi. Do you think that any Umuro man who goes to prison there will come back alive? But that apart, do you forget that this is the moon of planting? Do you want to grow this year's crops in the prison house in a land where your fathers owe a cow? I speak as your elder brother. I have travelled in Olu and I have travelled in Igbo, and I can tell you that there is no escape from the white man. He has come. When suffering knocks at your door and you say there is no seat left for him, he tells you not to worry because he has brought his own stool. The white man is like that. Before any of you here was old enough to tie a cloth between the legs I saw with my own eyes what the white did to Abame. Then I knew there was no escape. As daylight chases away darkness so will the white man drive away all our customs. I know that as I say it now it passes by yours ears, but it will happen. The white man has power which comes from the true God and it burns like fire. This is the God about Whom we every eighth day... Unachukwu's opponents were now shouting that this was a meeting of an age group that they had not assembled to join with him in chewing the seed of foolishness which they called their new religion.

'We are talking about the white man's road', said a voice above the others.

'Yes, we are talking about the white man's road, the roof and walls of a house falling, the ceiling is not left standing. The white man, the new religion, the soldiers, the new road - they are all part of the same thing. The white man has a gun, a machete, a bow and carries fire in his mouth. He does not fight with one weapon alone. (Taken from Chinua Achebe's Arrow of God)

1. 'There is no escape from the white man' in the passage means that the

- (A) white man will send the people to prison
- (B) white man can kill all the people with his gun
- (C) people are only trying to run away from the white man
- (D) people must accept the white man.

2. Unachukwu's speech in this passage shows that

- (A) is a coward
- (B) wants his people
- (C) loves the white man
- (D) is wise with experience

Read the following passage and answer question

Insects can be classified into fourteen separate groupings, or orders. Butterflies and moths belong to the Lepidoptera order. Lepidoptera means "scale wings", from the Greek words "lepido" which means "scale" and "ptera" which means "wings".

Lepidoptera is one of the largest and most diverse insects' orders. The only order with more different species is coleopteran, that of beetles. So far, scientists have observed approximately 150,000 different species of butterflies and moths. Each species is distinguished by the unique arrangement, colour, and pattern of its scales. Worldwide, there are about 28,000 butterfly species. The rest of the species comprising Lepidoptera are species of moths. Though butterflies and moths both have scaled wings, there are some important differences between them. Butterflies are distinguished by their brightly coloured wings. Moths' wings are usually less bright. Butterflies are usually active during the day, while moths are active at night. A butterfly's antennae are swollen at the tip, while a moth's antennae are feathery.

3. How many insect orders are there?

- (A) 2
- (B) 14
- (C) 3
- (C) Butterflies are insects, while moths are not
- (D) Butterflies fly faster than other Lepidoptera

5. You would expect to find the kind of information in this passage in

- (A) a scientific environment
- (B) a social studies text
- (C) neither of these
- (D) both of these

Read the following passage and answer question

In America, the first amendment to the Bill of Rights states, "congress shall make no law...abridging the

(D) 150

4. Which of the following is true?

- (A) Butterflies and moths belong to different order
 - (B) Butterflies and moths are both Lepidoptera
- freedom of speech....." This amendment was passed to protect our right to express our opinions without fear. Yet, we must stop using the first amendment as a justification to say whatever we want, whenever we want. No speech is "free" when it has detrimental effect on the well-being of the others, the protection of our privacy, the safety of our borders, or the quality of our thinking. While censorship is not the way of this land, we must take into account the effect of musical lyrics that influence young listeners. How often do we find ourselves singing a tune or repeating a phrase from a song instinctively, without stopping to ponder the meaning of the words? When these words are demeaning to any group of people or when they incite violence, we are unknowingly and extended family at home would suffer. I reply by saying that as soon as I got settled abroad; I would arrange for my family to join me. Other financial problems at home would be taken care of by my regular remittances. Would I then never think of going back Home in future? Not until the situation in the country improved considerably, I would answer. And who did I expect to carry on with the task of national rehabilitation when the likes of me are all out of the country? Those who messed up the country in the first place, I would argue. And so on. This dialogue of self has been going on for the last ten years or so; meanwhile, I am yet to leave the country. When I wonder how many people share my kind of mental experience, I realize that we must be very few.

For not many have the slightest opportunity of absconding from the country; they do not have the place to run to nor do they have the means of escape. Even among the elite who consider this possibility, the uncertainty of a future outside their fatherland intimidates. And so we all end up staying and mumbling.

The expression 'each striving to be recognized as being the most cogent' means each

- (A) trying to prove its superiority
- (B) determined to prove that it is the most acceptable
- (C) resolved not to be dislodged
- (D) attempting to how that it is the brightest.

20. Read the following and answer question

It was part of her nefarious plot! Of that I had no doubt She would slowly deprive me of my delicious slumber until finally, exhausted, I gave in to her wretched demands. She would claw her ways into my dreams, she could growl and complain, but no, I would not give in. I pulled the covers close over my head and rolled over. I was the stronger of we two. I was the determined one. I was the human, and she the beast. She must have understood my determination, for mercifully, the whining stopped. My breathing grew deeper and I returned to my wonderful sleep. Until moments later a crash awakened me. I bolted out of bed and there she was, in the kitchen guiltily lapping kitty treats off the floor. The mischievous beast had jumped onto the countertop and knocked the bag of food onto the floor. "Bad kitty!", I scolded pushing her away from the mess of chow. But the sweet face, that little sandpaper tongue licking her chops somehow softened me.

The word "nefarious" as used in the first sentence in the passage means

- (A) prankish
- (B) illegal
- (C) wicked
- (D) vicious
